

Attachment C - CSA Document Order for Retirement Package Submissions (non-disability)

- A. Always check every paper– make sure Name/ DOB/ SSN match
- B. 2-Hole Punch set at 8 ½
- C. Punch holes with 2-hole punch on the RIGHT side of all landscape papers; on the TOP of all portrait papers
- D. All forms on the same # above should be mixed together and placed in reverse chronological order by effective date: most recent date on top, oldest date on bottom
- E. Any partial pieces of paper or small papers should be stapled to a blank full sheet of paper to be included in case
- F. If there is a 79-9 or there is a Health Benefits form that is unprocessed or the effective date is after the retirement date, place at top of retirement package
- G. Do not tear papers off prongs in OPF or other folders. This damages the form and it will need to be repaired prior to submission to OPM. Holes need punched at the top (portrait) or right side (landscape). If this area is torn, use clear tape on the document to create an area that can be punched.
