Tailored Approaches for Professional Growth

Through a combination of experiential, problem-based learning and individualized assessments, you'll explore lessons and traits of extraordinary leaders to develop and transform yourself, your teams, and your organization.

Our offerings speak the language and share the values and concepts of government with enrollment options that meet individual and agency needs.

Individual Enrollments

Find out why high-performing employees like you turn to us to achieve their individual development plans (IDPs). Our courses and one-on-one coaching prepare you for success while you network and share best practices with leaders across government.

We offer leadership and skill-building courses based on your experience and career goals, as well as immersion programs to help further develop your capacity as an aspiring leader, project or team lead, supervisor, manager, or senior leader.

Group Enrollments

Strengthen your leadership pipeline with flexible options that cultivate and engage your most valued resource—people. Enroll a group of your employees in courses from our portfolio, or let us bring one exclusively to your team, when and where you want, with the ease of government-to-government interagency agreements. OPM's LEAD Certificate Program

Our courses are also available as part of OPM's Leadership Education and Development (LEAD) Certificate Program. The LEAD Certificate Program offers a clear path to career development in four certificate tracks based on essential leadership roles: Aspiring Leader, Team Lead, Supervisor, and Manager.

You'll focus on key leadership competencies through core classes while personalizing your own growth journey with electives to help fulfill your Individual Development Plan (IDP). View a list of program courses at www.opm.gov/LEAD.

The LEAD Certificate Program can also be delivered to groups within your agency. Contact our team to learn how the LEAD Certificate program can develop your organization's leaders and support succession planning.
